

Protech Pharma

Protech Pharma is a private biotechnology firm located in the city of Santa Fe, Argentina. Formerly, the company provided cell culture, purification and quality control services for API production, and at present developed into a specialized pilot manufacturing and scale-up site.

Under the umbrella of Amega Biotech, Protech Pharma favored a rapid scaled-up API provision to Zelltek manufacturing site and, likewise, its proximity to Universities and their associated resources provided the grounds for an ever increasing contact with latest technologies and scientific knowledge.
